Dewey & Kaye Promotes Two Professionals

Pittsburgh, PA, January 28, 2008 – Nonprofit consultants Dewey & Kaye, a McCrory & McDowell company, has announced the promotion of two professionals at their Downtown Pittsburgh office:

Dawn M. Kopp has been promoted to Staff Associate. A graduate of Seton Hill University, she has expertise in marketing and event logistics. She joins the Firm's executive search practice and will support recruiting efforts as well as the publication of Mosaic, Dewey & Kaye's newsletter for the nonprofit sector.

Jessica M. Obergas has been promoted to Senior Associate. Her areas of expertise include research, project management and facilitation. A graduate of Saint Louis University, she is the co-founder of Pittsburgh Party for a Purpose, a nonprofit initiative created to raise awareness and support local charities through creative events for young-minded professionals.

The Dewey & Kaye division of McCrory & McDowell LLC provides strategy development, planning, financial sustainability, facilitation, training and executive search services to help nonprofits, foundations, community collaboratives and government agencies address strategic, operational and administrative issues.

McCrory & McDowell LLC has been providing client-focused services in the region since 1951. Today, the Firm ranks as one of the largest Pittsburgh-based accounting and consulting firms in the region, offering a wide range of services through distinct, but integrated groups that include McCrory & McDowell's accounting, tax, and business consulting practices, Dewey & Kaye (Nonprofit Consultants), Diversified Medical Management (Health Care Industry Consultants), and Three Rivers Institute (Leadership Development & Facilitation Consultants).
